FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 14.

A REMARKABLE MARRIAGE.-Clinton, Samson county, N. C., reports a romantic marriage. D. A. Bizzell was united to Miss Belle Mathis, after a ten years' separation. They lived near each other, and learned to love when little children. In maturer years, their dream of a happy union was dispelled by the non-appearance of an important letter from one to the other, which has since been surmised, was lost when the post fice at Clinton was burned. Each supposing the other natrue, their separation continued, and after a time Bizzeli married another. In process of time death released him from this tie, and after various violesitudes he met with his first love, when mutual explana-tions followed, and the breach of ten years was healed by their marriage last Sunday.

A BURGLAR IN HER ROOM. - Miss Lillian Senior, residing with her parents in Boomfield, N. J., awoko yesterday morning and found a burglar in her room. She cried out at the top of her voice, whereupon the rob-ber drew a kaife and threatened to kill her if she did not keep quiet. Fortunately, the brother of Lillian heard her cry for help and rushed to her assistance. The robber made his escape, however, by jumping through the window to the ground. Nothing was stolen but a few trinkets.
